

Art Teacher: Ages 5 and Under Part-time Position

The Brookline Arts Center (BAC) is seeking an art teacher to work with children ages 5 and under for two classes this summer. The teacher will be responsible for providing overall class goals and objectives, developing class content and curriculum and providing a nurturing environment. Classes are offered as follows:

Art Jamboree!

June 11-15 and June 18-22 9:30-11:00am

Start the summer having fun with your child in an artistic environment! Over the course of one week, parents and caretakers will join their children and explore a variety of mediums, including paint, playdough, music, movement and sensory activities. These activities are geared towards play, expression and developing fine motor skills, as well as encourage and cultivate group socialization. Attend all five classes, or drop in for two.

Creation Station

June 11-15 and June 18-22 12:30-2:00pm

Let loose your creativity with the opportunity to try your hand at a variety of materials! Children experiment in sculpture, printmaking, painting and more. In Creation Station, the classroom is transformed into an experimental space for creating. Each day, stations are set up for students to play with a variety of materials, including one structured project. Attend all five classes, or drop in for two.

Qualifications:

- Excellent knowledge of child development.
- Experience teaching and creating early childhood curriculum.
- Excellent communication and organizational skills.
- Knowledge of general safety rules and basic first aid.
- Professional and patient.
- Ability to interact with and engage children and families.
- Knowledge of art materials and general care of studio space.
- MA in Art Education preferred or equivalent work experience.

Please email a resume, cover letter and portfolio of current work (a link or an attachment) to office@brooklineartscenter.com with subject "Art Teacher: Ages 5 and Under". Deadline for applications is April 27.
